We have (8) types of Assistance Programs:

- New Construction CNC) ff you do not own a home and would like to apply for a new home.
- Renovation (REHAB) If you own the home and live in the home and are requesting
- Emergency Repair (ERP) -If you own the home and live in the home and have an emergency request.
- Homeless Prevention Activity Program (Rent Assistance) -If you area a renter and receive a termination letter due to back rent due. The applicant(s) would need to turn in a copy of the termination letter and original contract that was signed with their landlord.
- Homeless Assistance (Shelter/Hotel) If you are homeless and need a place until your transition.
- Foreclosure Assistance -If you own the home and receive a foreclosure notice for non-payment.
- Inspection We can assist in obtaining an inspection for your home.
- Real Property Acquisition If you're a land owner and are selling your property.
- 1. Everyone who applies is required to turn in a Criminal Background Check from the NSB Police Department -This process is done on their own and at the cost of the applicant. You will need to go to the police department dispatch and show your ID/Driver's License and also pay the required $20.00 foe. You will need to provide a money order paid to the state of Alaska for each background check, make sure that the "original" is turned in with your application and we will give you the original back after making a copy. (This is required by HU D)
- 2. Please make sure to also bring your tribal card -you may either bring your Native Village Tribal Card (or tribe you belong to), if you do not have an NVB card you may also use a BIA card. If you do not have either of the two we will accept ASRC cards. (Please make sure you include these cards for each person listed on the application).
- 3. We will need a copy of your land deed to any land owned (if applicable).
- 4. Please provide copies of your current taxes documents for yourself and all members of household over the age of 18.
